Feb. 20.

WEEKLY FISH MARKET.

The dealers report that trade is very good in all lines especially smoked herring. Stocks of this desirable commodity are now quite light. The salt fish market was never stronger than at the present and some advances are noted. Sales of cured large Georges handline cod are reported at $8 per quintal, also $6.25 for mediums and $5.50 for snappers. Large kench cured bank have sold at $7 and mediums at $6. The quotations of $8 on cured large Georges has been equalled but once since 1867. Receipts of both fresh and salt fish continue light. The first of the salt bank fleet has sailed and the last of the frozen herring fleet is bound home with only parts of cargoes.

The frozen herring trade is good and the price is liable to advance, as the stock of Newfoundland goods in sight is light.

The feature of the week was the half dollar jump on handline Georges ex vessel, one fare put on the market bringing $5.50 and $4.50 for large and mediums. A firm Georges fare was taken in by the owners of the vessel at the same exceptional figures.

The receipts at this port for the week ending Feb. 20 are 72,000 lbs. salt cod.

26,000 lbs. fresh cod.
89,000 lbs. halibut.
149,000 lbs. haddock.
150 bbls. frozen herring.
40 bbls. salt herring.

PAID THE LIMIT PRICE.

Firm Georgesman Gets Same as Outside Fare on Market.

As there are now no Board of Trade prices to govern the price of fares ex-vessel, sales of fares on the market seem to govern the price of firm vessel fares. A few days ago a Georges handline cod fare sold on the market at $5.50 and $4.50 per hundred weight for large and medium and in accordance with this Cunningham & Thompson paid that figure for the fare of their own vessel, the Puritan.

There has been much speculation as what would be done in cases of this kind but this firm has settled the matter as far as it is concerned by meeting the market price and other large firms have said that should certainly do the same by their own vessels.

Sch. Columbia Arrives.

Sch. Columbia, Capt. John Stream, arrived here this morning from Fortune Bay, N. F., after a passage of six days with a partial cargo of frozen herring. Capt. Stream reports herring very scarce there all the season. Sch. Lizzie M. Stanwood left for home last Saturday, at the same time that the Columbia did.

HERRING CARGO SOLD.

Sch. Rival Will Take Her Fare to Boston.

The fare of frozen herring of sch. Rival sold to Boston parties. The terms are private but the price was satisfactory to the owner of the vessel and cargo, Mr. Hugh Parkhurst.

This leaves but two cargoes now unsold, s. b. Marine Elliott and Edna Wallace Hopper. The owners of the former craft, Messrs. D. B. Smith & Co., have refused an offer of three cents per pound for their cargo.

A Big Lobster.

A monster lobster weighing 18 1 4 pounds was brought in at Provincetown by sch. Emelia Enos. It was taken on her trawls off Highland.
